The Wall

Picture Description¹⁾

A black and white shot of cobblestones with an engraved plaque marking the Berlin Wall (1961-1989).

Analysis¹⁾

This black and white photograph captures a section of the former Berlin Wall's path, now marked by a line of cobblestones. Embedded within the cobblestones is a rectangular plaque that reads 'Berliner Mauer 1961-1989,' commemorating the years the wall stood. The surrounding pavement is dark and grainy, emphasizing the stark contrast between the weathered cobblestones and the stark reminder of a divided past. The composition is stark and evocative, focusing attention on the historical significance of the location and the enduring impact of the Berlin Wall.
