Ships on Danube III

Picture Description¹⁾

Nighttime shot of a river with a light-streaked boat passing by a building.

Analysis¹⁾

This captivating long-exposure photograph captures a night scene of a river with a modern building dominating the left side of the frame. The river is illuminated by reflected lights, creating shimmering trails on the water's surface. A boat, blurred due to the long exposure, appears as a dynamic streak of light moving towards the viewer. The sky is overcast, adding a sense of drama to the composition. The overall effect is a blend of urban landscape and abstract light painting, evoking a sense of motion and mystery.
