Skyline of Crosses

Picture Description<sup>1)</sup>

A stark silhouette of a wall with scaffolding against a dramatic sky of clouds and patches of blue.

This photograph captivates with its stark contrast and dramatic composition. A large, silhouetted structure dominates the foreground, its angular form creating a sharp diagonal line against the sky. The sky itself is a dynamic display of light and shadow, with patches of bright blue peeking through turbulent, dark grey clouds. The silhouette is punctuated by sparse, ladder-like structures, adding a sense of scale and perhaps construction or impermanence. The photograph evokes a feeling of tension between the solid, grounded structure and the ever-changing, ethereal sky.
