Playing Field XI

Picture Description¹⁾

A close-up shot of green Astroturf with yellow and red lines.

Analysis¹⁾

This photograph captures a vibrant and textured close-up of an artificial turf surface. The dominant color is a lush green, providing the backdrop for geometric accents. A bold, slightly diagonal stripe of red cuts across the frame, contrasting sharply with the green. A shorter, rectangular section of yellow adds another dimension of color and form to the composition. The tactile quality of the turf is emphasized through its intricate, almost woven appearance, inviting the viewer to consider the materiality of the surface.
