Stripes XXIII

Picture Description¹⁾

Abstract photograph of colorful vertical bars arranged in a semi-circular shape on a black background.

Analysis¹⁾

This abstract work, set against a stark black backdrop, presents a vibrant, segmented sphere constructed of vertical bars. These bars pulse with a range of neon colors - green, red, magenta, cyan, and white - creating a dynamic and energetic visual field. A sharp, horizontal line bisects the sphere, providing a distinct point of separation and further emphasizing the work's structural composition. The overall effect is a striking juxtaposition of geometric precision and chromatic intensity, evoking a sense of both order and vibrancy.
