60 Minutes Max

Picture Description¹⁾

A close-up, black and white shot of a parking meter showing the allowed parking time.

Analysis¹⁾

This black and white photograph captures a vintage parking meter, its circular face dominating the frame. The meter displays markings in German, indicating a maximum parking duration of 60 minutes. The needle points towards a time on the dial, while text below specifies the cost per unit of time in Pfennig (Pf) and Deutsche Mark (DM). The photograph is stark and grainy, evoking a sense of nostalgia for a bygone era. The composition is tight, focusing primarily on the meter's face, with a blurred background suggesting an urban setting.
