Heart Pounding

Picture Description¹⁾

A street scene features a large advertisement for Ulm with buildings in the background and a cyclist on the left.

Analysis¹⁾

This photograph captures a street scene in Ulm, Germany, dominated by a large advertising structure. The structure prominently displays a banner with the slogan "Zuerst hast Du Puls. Und dann Herzklopfen. So ist Ulm" (First you have pulse. And then heart pounding. That is Ulm). The banner features a striking design of concentric circles in blue and red. The architecture in the background includes modern apartment buildings and traditional German houses with gabled roofs. A cyclist and a few parked cars add to the urban atmosphere. The photograph is framed with a black border, which adds a contrasting element to the vibrant scene.
