Red on Green White III

Picture Description¹⁾

A red corrugated pipe lies on the ground covered with patches of snow and dead leaves, joined by a black coupling.

Analysis¹⁾

A vibrant red corrugated pipe bisects a landscape partially covered in snow, the ground beneath revealing a mix of withered leaves and dormant vegetation. The pipe, interrupted by a black coupling in its center, stands in stark contrast to the muted tones of the wintry scene, creating a striking visual tension between the artificial and the natural.
