10.5.1995

Picture Description¹⁾

A black and white photograph of a sign reading "10.5.1995: 'I try to make something that is true.' Robert Frank, we stay tuned"; from Tages-Anzeiger with a bicycle leaning against it.

Analysis¹⁾

This black and white photograph captures a moment of urban intersection. A large sign, prominently displaying the date '10.5.1995' and a quote from Robert Frank: 'Ich versuche etwas zu machen, was wahr ist...' ('I try to make something that is true...'), stands as a statement amidst a backdrop of imposing stone architecture. The sign, attributed to 'Tages Anzeiger,' is grounded by two weighty, conical bases. A bicycle leans casually against the sign, adding a touch of everyday life to the scene. The interplay of text, architecture, and the presence of the bicycle invite reflection on the relationship between art, information, and the ordinary.
