CHELSEA I

Picture Description<sup>1)</sup>

A black and white photograph shows a stack of band promo posters with the band name 'CHELSEA' and the words '1.8. ULM ATAK' in bold, arranged in three rows.

Analysis<sup>1)</sup>

This black and white photograph captures a series of posters plastered onto what appears to be a wall or pillar. The posters all feature a striking photograph of a man in a collared shirt and tie, with an intense, almost aggressive expression. The word 'CHELSEA' is prominently displayed above the photograph, possibly indicating a band name or event. Below the photograph, the text '1.8. ULM ATAK' is repeated, suggesting a date (August 1st) and a location or event name (Ulm Atak). The repetition of the poster creates a sense of urban grit and conveys the feeling of a public announcement or promotion in a raw, unfiltered manner.
